IN RE ROYAL DUTCH/SHELL TRANSPORT SECURITIES LITIGATION	) ) ) ) )	Civ. No. 04-374 (JAP) (JJH) (Consolidated Cases) Hon. Joel A. Pisano Hon. John J. Hughes
--	-----------------------	---

~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER

WHEREAS, Keefe Bartels, liaison counsel for the putative class in this consolidated class action, served and filed a Motion to Seal Materials on February 1, 2008 (the "Motion to Seal") (Docket No. 463);

WHEREAS, the Motion to Seal sought the sealing of certain documents (Docket Nos. 460, 461, and 462) relating to Keefe Bartels's Motion for Award of Attorneys' Fees and Costs, also served and filed on February 1, 2008 (the "Motion for Fees and Costs") (Docket No. 459);

WHEREAS, Bernstein Liebhard & Lifshitz, LLP ("BL&L"), lead counsel for the lead plaintiff and the class, does not oppose the Motion to Seal;

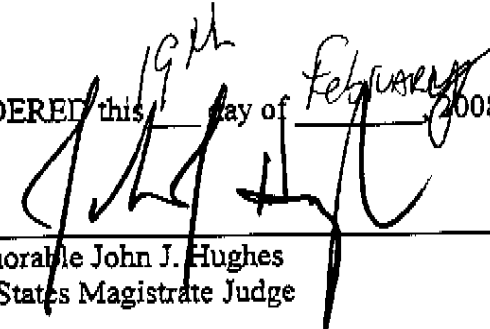

WHEREAS, BL&L and Keefe Bartels believe it is appropriate, for all the reasons identified in Keefe Bartels's Brief in Support of Motion to Seal Materials, to seal any and all filings related to the Motion for Fees and Costs, including not only the documents specifically identified in the Motion to Seal (Docket Nos. 460, 461, and 462), but also any materials filed in response to the Motion for Fees and Costs (due on February 7, 2008) and any materials filed in reply to that motion (due on February 14, 2008); and

WHEREAS, BL&L and Keefe Bartels do not believe oral argument related to the Motion to Seal is necessary.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

Lead Plaintiff's Memorandum in Opposition to Motion for Award of Attorneys' Fees and Costs (dated February 7, 2008), and the Declaration of Stanley D. Bernstein (executed on February 7, 2008), both of which are to be filed on February 7, 2008, are ordered to be sealed.

SO ORDERED this 19th day of February, 2008.

The Honorable John J. Hughes
United States Magistrate Judge
