In RE: Royal Dutch/Shell Transport Securities Litigation
Jonathan Lee Riches, Plaintiff

04-374 (JAP)

Motion For Judge Pisano's recusal under 28 USC 455 (A) (B) (C)
Because of conflicts of Interest with me, in which I was denied a Fair Hearing to Intervene in this case, because of conflicts of Interests

Comes now, Jonathan Lee Riches, with newly discovered evidence seeking Judge Pisano's recusal in this Royal Dutch/Shell transport securities litigation under 28 USC 455 (A) (B) (C) as Judge Pisano has a personal conflict of Interest with me that he failed to notify the parties in this case when the Judge heard my Previous motion to Intervene in this case, Judge Pisano used personal bias and prejudice towards me and denied my motion. Judge Pisano hates me because I previously Sued him in another Federal cases in Riches v. Federal Reserve Bank (D. of Maine) Riches v. Federal Judicial System, the Judge knew I sued him so I retaliation he denied my motion to intervene, which violated my due process because I had and still have evidence to help the plaintiffs. This is a total miscarriage of Justice. Tell me any other court in America, if you sue a Judge in another court, and go in front of that same Judge in his court, that that Judge has a Judicial duty to recuse himself because you won't get a fair hearing, that is the case with me in this case, I seek a rehearing on my motion to intervene and I seek a new Judge that does not have a conflict of Interest with me, I pray this honorable court will grant my motions for relief.

Respectfully,
